

The Office of Veteran Affairs

Resource Guide

A Helpful Resource Guide for Veterans

“United We Stand, Honoring All Who Served”

The Office of Veteran Affairs Resource Guide

About us

The Office of Veterans Affairs (OVA) proudly provides comprehensive services and support to Prince George's County veterans, military families, and their dependents. Through various programs and partners, the OVA offers guidance, information, and access to services while promoting activities for veterans of all ages and collaborating with service providers to address complex issues.

Connect with us

Stay connected with your Prince George's County Office of Veteran Affairs!

Phone: 301-952-3904
14741 Governor Oden Bowie Drive
Suite L-023
Upper Marlboro, MD 20772

Healthcare

Medstar Southern Maryland

Services Offered: Comprehensive medical services, specialty care, urgent care.

Insurance Accepted: VA Health Insurance, Medicare, Medicaid, private insurance such as Atena, Kaiser, CareFirst.

Additional Information: Offers telehealth services for remote consultations.

Contact: (301)-868-800

Address: 7503 Surratts Rd. Clinton MD, 20735

Luminis Health

Services Offered: Primary care, surgical services, mental health counseling.

Insurance Accepted: Accpets most major insurance inculding VA Health Insurance, Medicare, private insurance.

Additional Information: Features patient portals for easy appointment management. Varies locations in Prince Geroge's County

Website: www.luminishealth.org

Interdynamics Inc.

Services Offered: Integrative health services, mental health counseling, addiction support.

Insurance Accepted: VA Health Insurance, private insurance.

Additional Information: Focuses on holistic approaches to health and wellness.

Contact: (301)-306-4590

Website: www.interdynamicinc.com

Address: 4601 Forbes Blvd, Lanham, MD 20706

Healthcare

UMD Hospital Largo

Services Offered: Urgent care, primary care, specialty health services.

Insurance Accepted: VA Health Insurance, Medicare, private insurance.

Additional Information: Convenient location with extended hours for veterans.

Contact: (240)-677-1000

Address: 901 Harry S. Turman Dr N, Largo, MD 20774

Dyer Clinic

Services Offered: Offering short-term (up to 24 hours), personalized emergency crisis services for residents facing mental health and/or substance use challenges.

Insurance Accepted: VA Health Insurance, private insurance.

Additional Information: Offers community health programs and outreach services. Open 24 hours

Contact: (240) 965-1715

Address: 9314 Piscataway Rd, Clinton, MD 20735

Housing

US Vets

Services Offered: Transitional housing, case management, employment support, and mental health services.

Contact: 202-748-5549

Location: 150 Wayne PL SE, Washington, DC 20032

Additional Information: Focuses on helping veterans achieve stability and self-sufficiency through comprehensive support services

Ending homelessness
Rebuilding lives

Friendship Place

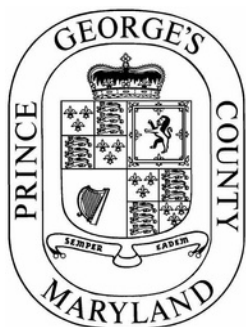

Services Offered: Housing search assistance, supportive services, job training, and financial literacy programs.

Contact: (202)-364-1419

Website: friendshipplace.org

Location: 4713 Wisconsin Ave NW, Washington, DC 20016

Additional Information: Provides a community-oriented approach, fostering connections among veterans and local resources.

Housing Prince George's County

Services Offered: Affordable housing programs, financial assistance, and housing counseling.

Contact: (301)-883-5501

Additional Information: Works to connect veterans with suitable housing options in the county.

Unity in the Community Darby House

Services Offered: Transitional housing, counseling, and job placement assistance.

Contact: (703)-494-8566

Website: www.unityitc.org

Additional Information: Focuses on providing support for veterans and their families during times of transition.

The Office of Veteran Affairs

A Helpful Resource Guide for Veterans

Housing

Men Shelter/UCAP

Services Offered: Shelter for men, support services, and connections to permanent housing resources.

Contact: (301)-322-5700

Location: 1400 Doewood Ln, Capitol Heights, MD 20743

Website: www.ucappgc.org

Additional Information: Provides emergency shelter and ongoing support for male veterans facing homelessness.

Employment and Education

State DLLR (Department of Labor, Licensing and Regulation)

Services Offered: Employment services, job training programs, and labor market information.

Veteran-Specific Programs: Offers dedicated services for veterans, including job placement assistance and workshops tailored to military experience. Also offers workforce exchange program

Contact: (410)-767-2015

Email: dlwdalveterans-labor@maryland.gov

Additional Information: Provides resources for understanding veteran employment rights and connecting with local employers

Employ Prince George's

Services Offered: Job search assistance, resume workshops, and interview preparation.

Veteran-Specific Programs: Specialized support for veterans, including job fairs and networking opportunities tailored for military personnel.

Contact: (301)-618-8425

Website: www.EmployPG.org

Additional Information: Collaborates with local businesses to promote veteran hiring initiatives.

Teambuilders Academy PGCC

Services Offered: Workforce development programs and training in various fields.

Veteran-Specific Programs: Offers programs specifically designed for veterans to gain job skills and certifications.

Contact: (301)-548-8510

Email: teambuildersacademy@pgcc.edu

Additional Information: Focuses on building teamwork and leadership skills essential for civilian employment.

Employment and Education

Bowie State University

Services Offered: A variety of undergraduate and graduate programs.

Veteran-Specific Programs: Offers dedicated support for veterans, including a veteran's affairs office and programs to ease the transition to academic life.

Contact: (301)-860-3730

Website: www.bowiestate.edu

Additional Information: Participates in the Yellow Ribbon Program to help cover additional tuition costs for veterans.

University of Maryland

Services Offered: Bachelor's and graduate degree programs across various disciplines.

Veteran-Specific Programs: Veterans services office that provides support for admissions, financial aid, and campus resources tailored for veterans.

Contact: (301)-314-8239 or 301-314-8225

Email: vabenefits@umd.edu

Additional Information: Active military and veteran student organizations provide networking and community support.

Veterans Upward Bound – PGCC

Services Offered: A free, non-profit, pre-college preparation program aimed at high school students.

Veteran-Specific Programs: Offers resources and mentorship for veterans' children seeking higher education.

Contact: (301)-546-0578

Email: vub@pgcc.edu

Additional Information: Focuses on helping first-generation college students succeed.

Employment and Education

Training Source

Services Offered: Job training programs and career counseling services.

Veteran-Specific Programs: Focuses on providing training and job placement specifically for veterans, including partnerships with local employers.

Contact: 301-731-5000

Email: info@pgcoc.org

Additional Information: Offers workshops that highlight transferable skills from military service to civilian job markets.

Labor and Skills Development

CDL Training

Prince George's Community College (PGCC) Offers Commercial Driver's License (CDL) training programs.

Benefits for Veterans: Obtaining a CDL can lead to high-demand job opportunities in the trucking industry, providing veterans with stable, well-paying careers. The skills learned in this training can translate into valuable experience for logistics and transportation roles.

Contact: 301-546-7422

Website: PGCC CDL Training

Teambuilders Academy

Provides workforce development and training programs for veterans.

Benefits for Veterans: Teambuilders Academy focuses on skills that are directly applicable in the job market, helping veterans transition into civilian careers. The training programs foster teamwork, leadership, and technical skills that are highly sought after by employers.

Contact: 301-710-0072

Website: Teambuilders Academy

Quality of Life Assistance

VSO – VA Disability Claims Assistance

Veterans Service Officers assist with VA disability claims.

Benefits for Veterans: Navigating the VA claims process can be complex. VSOs provide expertise and support, helping veterans receive the benefits they deserve, which can significantly improve their financial and emotional well-being.

Contact: 1-800-827-1000 (VA National Call Center)

Website: VA Claims Assistance

U.S. Department
of Veterans Affairs

Counseling Services at VET Center

Benefits for Veterans: Access to a wide range of services tailored to veterans' needs, such as individual and group counseling for PTSD, family counseling, and substance abuse treatment. The VET Center also helps with connecting veterans to community resources and employment services, fostering a smoother transition to civilian life.

Additional Services: VET Centers offer a welcoming environment where veterans can receive support in dealing with military-related issues, social reintegration, and coping strategies. They also provide assistance with VA benefits and claims.

Contact: 1-800-905-4675

Website: VET Center

U.S. Department
of Veterans Affairs

Red Cross

Offers emergency assistance, disaster relief, and education in communities.

Benefits for Veterans: The Red Cross provides crucial support during crises, helping veterans access shelter, food, and emergency financial assistance, which can be vital during challenging times.

Contact: 1-800-RED-CROSS (1-800-733-2767)

Website: American Red Cross

American
Red Cross

Quality of Life Assistance

Serving Together – EveryMind

Connects veterans and their families to services and support.

Benefits for Veterans: This program helps veterans navigate available resources, ensuring they receive the necessary support for housing, mental health, and employment, enhancing their quality of life.

Contact: 1-855-738-7176

Website: Serving Together

Habitat for Humanity

Provides affordable housing and homeownership opportunities.

Benefits for Veterans: Homeownership promotes stability and financial security. Habitat for Humanity helps veterans build equity in their homes, fostering a sense of community and belonging.

Contact: 1-800-422-4828

Website: Habitat for Humanity

Healthy Aging
& Supportive
Communities
Funding
Opportunity

Aging Department – Family Services

Provides services to seniors, including assistance and support.

Benefits for Veterans: Aging services can help veterans maintain independence and quality of life as they age, providing access to necessary resources and support networks.

Contact: 301-265-8450

Website: Family Services Aging

Homecare

Compassionate Home Care

Email: info@ccaremd.com

Description: Offers personalized home care services for veterans.

Benefits for Veterans: Home care services provide essential support for daily activities, allowing veterans to remain in their homes safely and comfortably. This promotes independence and improves their overall quality of life.

Website: Compassionate Home Care

Synergy

Description: Provides in-home care services tailored to individual needs.

Benefits for Veterans: Personalized care helps veterans manage health conditions, maintain daily routines, and enhance their emotional well-being, fostering a sense of dignity and self-sufficiency.

Contact: 240-565-6650

Website: Synergy HomeCare

Abundance Assisted Living

Description: Offers assisted living services in a home-like environment.

Benefits for Veterans: Assisted living facilities provide a supportive community and access to healthcare services, ensuring veterans receive the care they need while enjoying social interactions and activities.

Contact: 301-960-4999

Website: Abundance Assisted Living